W-APT (WIDA-APT) What is it?

W-APT (WIDA-APT) is a test for students who are not native English speakers (ELs). It assesses students' English language proficiency in the areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking. The W-APT is designed to provide information to educators about students' English language abilities.

What is the W-APT used for?

W-APT is used to help educators make informed decisions about students' English language proficiency. It helps educators understand the strengths and weaknesses of students who are not native English speakers.

What is W-APT (APT) used for?

The W-APT is used to assess students' English language proficiency in the areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking. It helps educators understand the strengths and weaknesses of students who are not native English speakers.

What is W-APT (APT) for?

W-APT is used to assess students' English language proficiency in the areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking. It helps educators understand the strengths and weaknesses of students who are not native English speakers.

What is W-APT (APT)?

W-APT is an assessment tool used to evaluate the English language proficiency of students who are not native English speakers. It assesses students' abilities in the areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

What is the purpose of W-APT (APT)?

The purpose of W-APT (APT) is to assess students' English language proficiency in the areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

Where can I find more information about W-APT (APT)?

You can find more information about W-APT (APT) on the WIDA website: www.wida.us/assessment/